Are the above verses the great revelation of Allaah? If so, then what kind of an environment is this we live in? It seems like there are no true Muslims left in this world. Can any of us believe that our beloved Prophet (sallalahu alaihi wasallam) is back on the scene? Can any of us believe that Allaah's Messenger (sallalahu alaihi wasallam) will come back? Although it is not advisable to speak in this manner, because the Prophet (sallalahu alaihi wasallam) was from amongst us and our loved ones, yet since he has not appeared to any of us for such a long time, it will be extremely difficult to believe that he will be back. It's extremely difficult for us to believe that our Prophet (sallalahu alaihi wasallam) is alive. There is no doubt that we know how difficult it is to believe that our Prophet (sallalahu alaihi wasallam) is alive, because not many of us believe that it is our Prophet (sallalahu alaihi wasallam). When the rumbling of the sound of a drum is heard in the distance, the people are afraid. The sound of a drum signals that the Prophet (sallalahu alaihi wasallam) is alive. They claim that they have seen him, but they haven't. People will say, "If we didn't see him, how can we claim that he is alive? And if we did see him, why don't we see him now?" This is what we are talking about. The people will ask about the Prophet (sallalahu alaihi wasallam) and nobody will say anything about him. If anyone speaks about him, he will be beaten. Our Prophet (sallalahu alaihi wasallam) is a valuable person. It is not easy to believe that our Prophet (sallalahu alaihi wasallam) is alive. It is not easy to believe that our Prophet (sallalahu alaihi wasallam) is alive. It is very difficult to believe that our Prophet (sallalahu alaihi wasallam) is alive. It is difficult to believe that the time has come when the Prophet (sallalahu alaihi wasallam) will come back. Many people will deny the fact that the Prophet (sall 82157476af
